REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

G.O.Ms.No.3207. Dated: 4-12-1951.
Read the following:-

From the Inspector General of Registration.No. 1103-Accts. dated 27-10-1951.

ORDER:

In his letter quoted above, the Inspector General of Registration has recommended that joining time without pay in cases of transfer at request of officiating servants may be allowed to count for the purpose of increment. The Inspector General is informed that the period of joining time in such cases is treated as duty under F.R.9(6)(a)(ii) for the purpose of continuity of service and no pay is allowed during joining time as the Government servant is not doing any duty in any post during this period and that just as leave without allowances does not count for increment even in a substantive post, duty without pay cannot also count for increments in a time scale of pay even in substantive posts. The position is not therefore anomalous and there is no need to change the rules. It is however open to the officer ordering such transfer to treat the above period of joining time as leave for which the Government servant concerned is eligible in order to enable him to count the period of leave for increment.

2. The Inspector General is requested to dispose of the case of Sri Y. Narasaramiah in accordance with the instructions in para 1 above.
